

Davis County Health Department Paid Internship/Practicum Announcement

Requirements of Intern: Working toward degree in Public Health, Health Administration, Health Promotion, Public Administration or Related Field, Background Check, Drug Test, Transportation, Access to a computer and internet. Preference given to masters level students.

Skills Needed: Computer (Excel, Word, desktop publishing, web-based applications), data analysis, organization, and written and oral communication.

Background: Davis County Health Department uses interns to support health department activities to carry out the 10 essential public health services.

Potential Activities: Assess health status, investigate health problems, inform and educate about health issues, mobilize community partnerships, develop policies and plans, link people to services, workforce development, evaluation of programs and services, research emerging health issues and solutions.

Winter: The primary focus will be to compile data for local community health assessments. Looking for an intern with good data analysis, evaluation, desktop publishing, web publishing, and written communication skills.

Number of Hours: 270 or more (flexible depending on needs of students)

Compensation: $7.25/hour

Contact:

Isa Perry, MPH, CHES
Community Outreach Planner
Davis County Health Department
22 S State Street
Clearfield, Utah 84015
isa@daviscountyutah.gov
Office Number: 801-525-5212