

SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONNAIRE
I/M Specialist, I/M Lane Lead, I/M Technician

Name _____

INSTRUCTIONS: The following questions will be considered as part of your application for an I/M Specialist, I/M Lane Lead or I/M Technician position. Your responses must be attached to your application in order for you to be considered for this position. Do not substitute any other material in lieu of a response to the questions on this questionnaire.

1. This position includes duties that require frequent bending, stooping, leaning, and lifting. Can you perform duties with these body motion requirements?

2. This position includes duties that require removing and lifting large size tires from automobiles and trucks, and large diesel vehicles. In addition, it requires lifting and moving other tools and/or equipment weighing up to 50 lbs. Can you perform duties with these body motion requirements?

3. The duties of this position are performed in an environment where several vehicle engines are running at once creating a moderately high noise level. Can you perform the duties of this position under these conditions?

4. This position requires viewing data on a computer monitor and using a keyboard accurately, can you perform these duties?

5. This position requires frequently driving motor vehicles on to and off of testing equipment, can you perform this duty?

6. This position requires extensive use of hand tools (wrench, pry bar, calipers, etc.) that require firm gripping and rotating wrist motions, can you perform duties that require this hand/arm motion?