News Release

Back To Breastfeeding & Baby Basics Conference Is Saturday, Sept. 7th

(Layton, Utah) – The Davis County Breastfeeding Coalition in partnership with local community lactation supporters is hosting a free conference for new parents, seasoned parents wanting to refresh their skills, or parents-in-waiting. The 2nd Annual Back to Breastfeeding & Baby Basics Conference is Saturday, Sept. 7, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Weber State University – Davis Campus in Layton.

All registered conference participants will be provided lunch vouchers, receive a swag bag, and be entered into prize drawings awarded throughout the conference. Prizes include baby carriers, breast pumps, insulated bags, gift cards, and much more. Also, participants have the option to browse and shop at family-friendly vendors' booths.

Classes are available to learn about infant massage, tummy time, infant CPR, post baby relationships, etc. Breakout sessions and guest speakers' information is on the Davis County Breastfeeding Coalition's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/DavisCountyBreastfeedingCoalition/>.

Participants may register for either half day or all day sessions of the conference. Online registration is at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/back-to-breastfeeding-baby-basics-event-tickets-63811559091>.

Infants are welcome, but please arrange childcare for older children.

Conference organizers extend their thanks to Davis County WIC (Women, Infants, & Children), South Davis Pediatric Dentistry, Davis County Health Department, CellSure, Success With Breastfeeding, Ogden Clinic Farmington, and Lakeview Hospital.
